Pinkerton Park History

Elizabeth Pinkerton is a distinguished educator at local, state and national levels. She is a dedicated wife, mother, mentor, author, local newspaper columnist and is an esteemed leader in the Elk Grove community. Elizabeth is described by long-time colleagues as an innovative and creative thinker who has worked hard planting and nurturing the seeds for a quality education for all students. Her leadership in community and local history led to her involvement with several community projects including the moving of the Rhoads Schoolhouse to Elk Grove Park, the construction of the Elk Grove Hotel and Stage Stop, and the formation of the Elk Grove Historical Society. Elizabeth was designated as Citizen of the Year for the Elk Grove community in 1982.
